*A Night of Prayer & Praise
for Hunter Street Women*

February 11. 6:00-7:30pm

Ladies, come be part of A Night of Prayer and Praise led by different women on the ministry leadership team. We will hear personal testimonies from two women of Hunter Street. Spend time united as one in life-changing prayer for you and your family.

This Friday, February 9 is our third annual Daddy-Daughter Night. You'll have dinner on your own, then join us at 6:30pm in the Student Building for dessert and fun activities.

It's for all dads and daughters, ages four and older. Register online or come by the Kid Quest Desk. The cost is $10.

Women On Mission

Guest speakers to share experiences from their mission trip to Senegal. Find out when in News Bits on Page 2.

Lake Forest Ranch Preteen Camp is coming June 21-25. This exciting weekend is a combination of high energy recreation, life-changing messages, soul-transforming small group Bible Studies, and Christ exalting praise and worship. Camp is for kids who will have completed grades 5 or 6 at the time of camp. The Cost is $370.00 and the registration deadline is May 31. Register at hunterstreet.org/preteens.

Derby Racers Ready

Our Annual Pinewood Derby Race is coming up on Sunday, March 11. This event is designed for boys in grades 1-4 that are involved in our missions program for kids as well as our Trail Life guys.

Registration begins at 2:00pm in the gym and races start at 3:00pm. Car kits are available for purchase ($5) at the Kid Quest Desk or local hobby shops.

We will have a Hunter Street Boys Division for boys in Grades 1-4, a Trail Life Division, and an Open Division for anyone else who would like to race. You do not have to register ahead of time, but will need to bring your own car, ready to race. We will have prizes, trophies and snacks at the event.

The Rays of Hope Cancer Support Ministry offers comfort, hope and support to cancer patients, their caregivers, cancer survivors, and others whose lives have been touched by cancer.

They also help educate and promote awareness about different types of cancer. Anyone in the church and community is welcome.

The next meeting is this Sunday, February 11, 5:00 – 6:00pm, in Room E301. Dr. Gerald McDermott, Beeson Divinity School professor and co-author of two books on cancer, will be speaking on "Arguing With God".

Grow

DNOW Weekend

Photo Feature. This unique weekend experience is designed to help students grades 7-12 grow to be more like Christ. Over 292 students spent the past weekend filled with Bible study, worship, fun, and friends with speaker Jason Cook and worship leader Jarryd Foreman Band. Students learned about being on mission, tech talk, apologetics, scripture art, and more during 13 Breakout sessions. Most importantly, the students learned that God is greater than our problems and even the good things in life. Saturday afternoon, around 35 Seniors and their leaders served at the Alabama Children's Home in Gardendale doing yard work, pressure washing, cleaning.

DNOW By The Numbers

292 students, 56 Volunteers, 61 Family Group Hosts, 50 College leaders, 126 pizzas Friday night, 500 Chick-Fil-A boxes for lunch on Saturday, 5 Food Trucks for dinner on Saturday.
Over $400 collected for the feeding clinic in Niger goats fund.

#Greater18

Baseball, Softball, and T-Ball -- it's time to play ball! Registration is open for players, and we have opportunities for godly coaches from our Hunter Street family. We offer leagues for boys and girls in K4/K5 through 6 grade.

Cost is $85. Register at HunterStreet.org/sports. Registration closes February 25. Interested in coaching? Contact Collin McNeil, collinm@hsbc.org for more information.
